The 2017 Androscoggin River Source to the Sea begins in the Umbagog National Wildlife Refuge north of Errol, New Hampshire and ends in Merrymeeting Bay in Brunswick, ME where the Androscoggin meets the Kennebec River and empties into the Atlantic Ocean. The event is organized as a series of day trips along the river. Highlights include evening paddles, healthy foods, family days, music, hiking, standup paddle-board, as well as educational sessions on native plant species, fish habitat, ornithology, weather, aquatic insects, healthy nutrition and river ecology.

For logistical and safety reasons PRE-REGISTRATION IS STRONGLY ENCOURAGED.

Sign up by registering at androscogginwatershed.org.

Although there is no fee to participate, a $10.00-$20.00 donation is suggested at the time of registering. Donations will also be accepted at the put in site on each event day.
